Course Overview

Start & Finish Time: 10:00 – 16:00

Location: Zingermann's, Ann Arbor, MI.

Join us for this unique opportunity to experience how coaching as an element of leadership is pivotal to the success of engaging employees and deploying the Shingo philosophy of Operational Excellence.

We will take a deep dive into how and why so many organisations around the world have adopted the Shingo Model to drive their Enterprise Excellence Journey. We will cover the theory behind the model and also provide practical insights from Shingo award winners.

In partnership with our host site – Zingerman's - we will have the opportunity to see first hand the application of a principle led business model. We will see how they have maintained simplicity, whilst managing some unusual operational issues.

As an added bonus we get to feast on some fabulous Zingerman's food for lunch!

Who should attend?

This workshop will be of interest to those responsible for Organisational Transformation at a strategic level, as well as those responsible for aligning operations to the Shingo Principles.

Join us for a practical & thought-provoking workshop & Best Practice Visit at the fantastic
Zingerman's

PRESENTED BY: COLIN SCOTT President, S A Partners Inc
